If you are one who doubts that electricity is cheap in Alabama, so that it behooves everyone to Electrify NOW; if you are one who has doubted that Alabama Power Company has always been an advocate of low and uniform rates for each of the various classes of service, here's something that should be of interest to you:

55 Reductions In 14 Years!

Since 1922 Alabama Power Company has made 55 reductions in its rates for electric service involving all classes of service. Each reduction has effected material savings to its customers and stimulated the use of electricity in the development of the State.

The trend in the Company's rates for domestic electric service is illustrated by the following table:
